Three-Ply Program To Reduce Idleness Offered By Snyder

Reconversion Director Predicts 8,000,000 Unemployed by Next Spring in Report to Congress and Recommends Plan To Head Off Jobless Problem

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Reconversion Director John W. Snyder said today there may be 8,000,000 unemployed by next spring with "high unemployment" persisting through 1946.

He made this prediction in a 46-page report to the President and Congress. It was his fourth report. He labeled it "three keys to reconversion—production, jobs, markets."

Snyder's forecast was based on the contention that job-giving will be unable to keep pace with a prospective million-a-month demobilization.

But he was "firmly optimistic" about the future, provided the nation works as a team. He asserted:

1—Prompt, peaceful settlement of labor-management differences is a reconversion "must."

2—Congress should act promptly on those four points in the President's program calling for "full employment, transitional tax adjustments, broadening and raising unemployment compensation and raising minimum wages."

(Three tax steps recommended were: Repeal of the 3 per cent normal tax on individuals, repeal of the excess profits tax, effective January 1 next, and setting a definite date for reducing excises).

3—The executive branch "must" and will be as vigorous in its policies and programs to solve peacetime problems as it was in solving wartime problems.

4—Cooperation and teamwork among "management and labor, business and farmer, Federal, state and local governments" is indispensable, if there is to be a rapid expansion of peacetime production, jobs for all those willing and able to work, and stable markets for business and agriculture.

Pointing to prospects of about 8,000,000 unemployed by spring, Snyder said the country must "face the fact that substantial unemployment lies ahead."

"That, in itself," he continued, "will not stamp reconversion successful or unsuccessful. It takes time for industry to turn around—to stop work on munitions and retool for work on peacetime products."

Asserting that the nation has "come a long way in reconversion," Snyder added:

"The initial shock is over. Most war contracts have been cancelled, most lay-offs are behind us. Through the government is withdrawing from the market on a record scale, there is an offset in pent-up, record-breaking demand for goods of all types by consumers and producers both at home and abroad."

Of the future the reconversion chief said:

"We are not seeking to go back to previous levels of employment or output. We are seeking to expand our output rapidly to 40 to 50 per cent above former peacetime levels."

Career Most Spectacular of Any 'Commander' in American Army -- But It Didn't Last Long

By HAL BOYLE.
WITH AMERICAN ARMY IN JAPAN (Delayed).—(AP)—This may seem a strange place to bring it up, but did you ever hear of the brief military career of Mrs. Collins?

It was one of the most spectacular of any "commander" in the American Army but it didn't last long.

SMILING LT. Calvin Campbell, Richmond, Va., pictured as he arrived in New York, is believed to have more invasion "firsts" to his credit than any other Yank. He was first to jump at Sicily, Salerno, Anzio, Normandy, Holland, and Central Germany. He wears seven battle stars and the Purple Heart with two clusters. (International)

PEACE IN CHINA LOOMS AT LAST

Nationalists and Communists Nearing Agreement

By CLYDE FARNSWORTH

CHUNGKING, Oct. 1.—(AP)—An eight-point program aimed at easing differences of years standing between the Chinese Communists and the Kuomintang Nationalist government has emerged from a month-long discussion between the two principals.

Final decision hinges on whether the Communists will yield in their demands for virtual autonomy.

Closely associated with the issues were the policies of Russia and the United States. The recent shifts of American State Department personnel have drawn the interest of the Kuomintang government, while U. S. marine landings in North China concerned the Communists.

It was learned reliably both sides agreed to a political council incorporating all party representation, including a section of non-party members. Negotiations presumably are pivoting on the selection of members, voting methods and a specific agenda.

Other issues opened which it is understood agreement has been reached are:

A policy of peaceful reconstruction under the leadership of Chiang Kai-Shek.

Recognition of the equal status of different political parties.

Punishment for traitors and disbanding of puppets.

Adoption of measures for the democratization of politics and nationalization of the armies, pending the end of one-party rule.

Release of political prisoners.

Abolition of laws at variance with the freedoms enjoyed by other democratic countries.

Reform of the central government's secret police methods to restrict activities of the intelligence and forbid them to make arrests or order detentions.

LAUSCHE TO INTERVIEW HOMELESS BIS INMATES

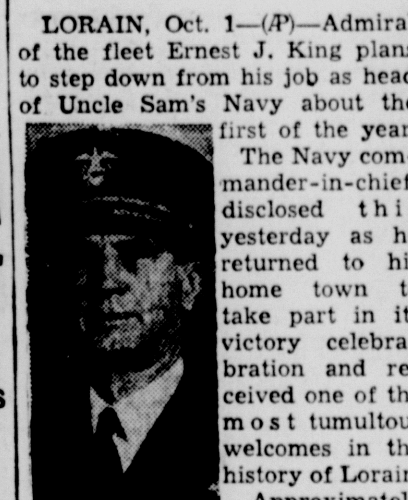

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche will interview five homeless inmates of the Boys' Industrial School in his office Friday morning to attempt to work out a solution for their release.

One of the boys has been eligible for release since May, 1943, and the four others were eligible early in 1944. They have been held in the institution near Lancaster because they had no home to which to return.

Adm. King Plans For Retirement

Navy's Commander-in-Chief Reveals Hopes at Home Town Celebration

LORAIN, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Admiral of the fleet Ernest J. King plans to step down from his job as head of Uncle Sam's Navy about the first of the year.

The Navy commander-in-chief disclosed this yesterday as he returned to his home town to take part in its victory celebration and received one of the most tumultuous welcomes in the history of Lorain.

Approximately 100,000 persons lined the route of the two and one-half mile long parade, headed by an automobile bearing the Admiral, Gov. Frank J. Lausche and Mayor Harry Van Wagner, to pay tribute to the city's most famous son.

Some 10,000 servicemen and women and members of veteran and civic organizations followed through the confetti-strewn streets.

An infantry regiment from Fort Hayes, Columbus; Army units from Camp Perry and Erie Proving Ground; Marine and Navy V-12 students; patients from Crile Hospital, members of the State Guard, Civil Air Patrol, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars; all these and many more paraded in honor of their nation's triumph.

But the most dramatic moment came when the float of the Admiral King Chapter of Navy mothers, followed by rank on rank of marching mothers, brought the Navy commander in chief to rigid attention.

Admiral King said, "I'll retire as soon as things settle down. I expect to retire about the first of January."

And he added, "my relief has not yet been decided upon."

At an evening program, Admiral King declared, "despite the atomic bomb, America must keep up its Army and Navy. The atomic bomb is not the full answer to world peace."

Speaking of demobilization problems, he said, "The Navy, along with the Army, is demobilizing as fast as this can be done in an orderly manner."

"You are all aware of the unsettled state of the world," he added. "This is not time for us to disintegrate our Army and Navy. Reduce it, yes, but in an orderly manner."

Tax Cut Program Offered Congress

Individuals and Business Would Benefit Under Plan Submitted By Secretary—President's General Program Lagging

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—A $5,000,000,000 tax reduction for individuals and business in 1946 was proposed to Congress today by Secretary of the Treasury Vinson.

In the first tax-cutting legislation to hit Capitol Hill in 16 years, Vinson laid before the House Ways and Means Committee the administration's plan for easing wartime burdens on personal and corporate pocketbooks. He recommended:

1. Repeal of the three per cent normal tax on individuals, effective January 1, thus erasing 12,000,000 low-income persons from the tax rolls completely and reducing the tax liability for all individuals by $2,085,000,000.

2. Elimination of the 95 per cent war-imposed excess profits tax on corporations, reducing 1946 corporate burdens by $2,555,000,000.

3. An end on July 1, 1946, of the high wartime excises on such things as fur coats, jewelry, cosmetics and transportation. The excises under this regulation would return next July to the 1942 level, thus halving the tax on many of the so-called luxury items. Vinson said this would result in an annual reduction of $547,000,000 in excise tax collections.

In presenting the administration's tax-trimming program, Vinson voiced confidence in the future of the American economy, saying "the war has demonstrated that this is a $200,000,000,000 country; an annual gross national income of $200,000,000,000 at present prices is within our reach."

But Vinson said the big national debt and the responsibility to 85,000,000 government bond holders demand careful consideration in the treasury.

The secretary declared that in no event should tax reductions next year go beyond $5,000,000,000.

In advance of Vinson's appearance, Republican tax leaders voiced demands for more substantial reductions than they expected the administration to present.

The Republicans want a slash of at least 20 per cent "across the board." (Please Turn to Page Six)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—President Truman will send a message to Congress early this week on what he thinks should be done with the atomic bomb secret.

The White House made this announcement today after the House Appropriations Subcommittee which recently toured U. S. military installations around the world left a nine point recommendation with the President.

Among these was one that the secrets of atomic energy should be kept to ourselves pending study of the development by a commission representing the scientists who directed the project, the joint chiefs of staff, state department, and Congress.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Selective Service contends veterans are entitled to reemployment even though job standards in their former positions have increased since they left for service.

Under an interpretation of the draft act announced today by Selective Service headquarters, employers can not require veterans to meet higher standards or re-employment set up for other employees in the same or similar positions.

"Even if the position has so changed in job content that it is beyond the veteran's skill," the statement said, "he is entitled to a job requiring skill comparable to that required by the position which he left at the time he left and equal in seniority, status and pay to that which he vacated."

"If the veteran can do his job or can be retrained on the job to perform the duties safely and with acceptable efficiency within a reasonable period of time, he is entitled to be restored to that job," the statement continued.

Disability should not deprive a veteran of his former job unless it makes his performance of duty impossible, dangerous to himself and others or reduces his efficiency below that normally expected of an acceptable employee.

Selective Service said.

Gasoline Is Still Scarce in Northern Ohio — Mines Closing in South

(By The Associated Press)
The nation's strike idle fell to approximately 352,000 today, the first major reduction in more than a week, but there were rumblings of prospective additions within the near future.

This was the picture:
Ended — 38,000 white collar workers of the Westinghouse Electric Co., who struck September 9 in a demand for bonus or incentive pay plans and which spread to 14 plants in six states; 15,000 building service employees in New York City whose return to work permitted 1,500,000 other persons to resume their occupations; and 5,000 employees of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Minnequa steel plant.

New Strike Threats
Threatened — Some 2,200 oil workers at the Union Oil Co. plants at Orem and Wilmington, Calif.; eight locals of the CIO Oil Workers Union in the Allegheny valley of Pennsylvania; 1,500 United Farm Equipment Workers members in the Peoria, Ill., plant of the Caterpillar Tractor Co., which employs 18,000; some 14,000 in five Dayton, O., plants of General Motors' Frigidaire division; and 200,000 telephone workers.

Continuing — 35,000 oil workers in refineries throughout the nation; 65,000 wood and lumber workers in a half-dozen states; 100,000 automotive workers, principally in the Detroit area; 40,000 miners, mostly in Pennsylvania and West Virginia; and 50,000 textile workers, largely in the New-England area. OFFICERS STALL WHEN RECORDS ARE DEMANDED

Loot from Conquests Included In Seizures—Leaders 'Can't Take It' as Trial Nears

By RUSSELL BRINES
TOKYO, Oct. 1.—(AP)—American occupation authorities today began a quest for untold millions of dollars in gold, silver and currency which Japan was believed to have wrested from the lands it overran in its try for world domination.

The search paralleled other probes into imperialistic war financing, made possible through General MacArthur's bold, secret seizure today of 21 government-controlled financial institutions in Tokyo and six other cities, and ousting of their officials.

The Bank of Japan, the nation's largest financial institution, one-quarter owned by the Japanese imperial household, was closed by an order of the Allied command.

2,000 ACCLAIM HORSE SHOW AS SUCCESSFUL ONE

Ohio Horses Win Stakes; Another Show in 1946 Will Be Planned

With a crowd of more than 2,000 screaming overcast skies, the constant threat of rain and chill winds at the combined afternoon and night program, the Lions Club's first venture into Horse Shows today was written into the records as a success, both financially and as entertainment.

Silver Fashion, shown by Dr. and Mrs. H. Hutchinson of Loveland, carried off the grand championship in the night stake for five-gaited horses, and Shorty George, shown by Miss Faith Wrobbel of Springfield, took the grand championship in the stake for three-gaited horses, but it was the afternoon class for Fayette County pleasure horses and riders and the classes, both afternoon and night, for the youngsters that won the crowd's most intimate interest.

The afternoon's pleasure class was won by Miss Beverly Gilton riding Frank DeWitt's light dun and white spotted filly, Nelly Bly. Eddie Graves putting on a rodeo finish with his pinto pony, Bonnie, all in wild west regalia, took second. Mrs. John Sagar, riding her chestnut five-gaited mare, Daisy, was third and Willard Wilson on Doc was fourth in the class that brought many familiar faces into the ring.

The pony classes were the talk of the show afterward. Every one appeared to have a favorite. What they lacked in formal class or that intangible something known as atmosphere of the regulation horse show, they made up in "local color."

The afternoon program closed with a class for hunters and the one at night opened and closed with this always popular exhibition of hurdlings.

A surprise announcement by Paul Van Voorhis, president of the Lions Club, that the organization already was planning a "bigger and better" show next year and that horse shows probably would become one of the club's annual events brought a ringing round of applause.

The Lions agreed that the threatening weather not only cut down the size of the crowds but also caused some of the exhibitors to change their plans and remain at home. Given good weather, they said they were convinced that both the show and the attendance would have been much better.

From all sides the club was being complimented for its enterprise and the smoothness with which the show went off. Support for future horse shows seemed a foregone conclusion.

Just how much in dollars and cents the club will add to its fund for its charity program will not be determined until after the final accounting is made, probably sometime this week, John Sagar the chairman of the committee, said. The attendance was roughly 1,200 in the afternoon and 800 at night. He added, however, that there was no doubt about its success, but just how much is still uncertain. He said the club "really appreciates" the support the people gave it; they in turn said the club had given them something they have long wanted.

Sagar, who also acted as the ringmaster, said the horsemen who showed here Sunday were enthusiastic about the way the show was handled and said they would look forward to returning for another show next year. Thomas Barnhart, the saddle horse judge, commented the show was the nicest he had judged this year and Jack Parker, the jumping horse judge, said he would like to cooperate with the Lions Club to arrange for bigger jumping and hunter classes in next year's show.

The high school band, under William B. Clift's baton, played for half an hour before both the afternoon and evening shows. The band wore its blue uniforms and played in the center of the grandstand.

WORLD TODAY

By DeWitt MacKENZIE

They say the lessons we remember are those we learn the hard way, and on this basis the fiery conference of Big Five foreign ministers in London is likely to be productive in the long run, since it has defined sharp differences which must be reconciled if world peace is to prevail.

The fact that these divergencies exist shouldn't be discouraging. On the contrary, it has been certain all along that the remoulding of a large portion of our chaotic world would be attended by just such difficulties. What the council of foreign ministers has achieved is to bring these differences out into the open where they can be dealt with.

The main lesson of this two-fisted conference is that the United Nations must not—as they love their lives—accept the theory that the world has to be divided up again into air-tight spheres of influence among the Big Three or the Big Five or any other group of "big." That's what makes war.

Of course there always will be groupings of nations to meet collective interests. But these must be beneficial groups which will be cooperative with one another. They must be such as will fit into the structure of our new world security organization.

The trouble is that the "big" entertain a lot of hot suspicions of one another. Those suspicions can only be removed by putting all the cards on the table. That's why the foreign ministers' council has been doing useful work.

John M. Hightower, AP diplomatic news editor in Washington, says the tensions developed between Russia and the Anglo-American Allies, are viewed in the capital as springing mainly from two sources: (1). An evident desire of London and Washington to check the extent of Russia's direct control over countries in eastern Europe. (2). Prolonged uncertainty in the American government over what to do with the atomic bomb secret.

There, I judge, we see the suspicions at work on both sides. Apropos of the atomic bomb, a London dispatch records an incident showing the bargaining power which the bomb gives Uncle Sam. Russian foreign commissar Molotov remarked at a dinner party that U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes "doesn't need to persuade anyone—he just has to hold up a little bomb." Well, of course that must be labeled as a wise-crack—but I think we may assume it was intended to pack a wallop.

Now there are two ways of dealing with these suspicions and differences of opinion. One is to bring them into the open and thresh them out with toleration. The other is to cultivate them until finally they have to be settled in another world upheaval. We can take encouragement from the fact that all the Allies appear to be anxiously seeking a peaceful solution.

One of the most hopeful developments of the foreign ministers' conference has been the American proposal, put forward by Secretary Byrnes, that the carrying out of the Japanese surrender terms be placed under the direction of a far eastern commission. This would comprise not only America, Russia, Britain and China but France, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the Netherlands.

spoke excellent English, impeccable French and guttural German that Hitler might have envied.

A feeling also grew up in the regiment that if the occasion arose, Mrs. Collins would also be able to bat the breeze in Zulu or Greek.

When the regiment took off in pursuit of the Germans, who tagged along but Mrs. Collins! And she set about at once making herself useful in many ways.

She took over the regimental mess. Its quality improved at once. She wrangled dishes, table clothes — even napkins — from someone wherever the regiment halted.

Mrs. Collins took over selection of command posts, scouting forward with leading troops. There were no more buddy outbuildings for this regiment. Mrs. Collins al-

POSTMASTER EXAMINATION IS ANNOUNCED

Civil Service Commission Taking Applications For the Place

The U. S. Civil Service Commission has announced an open competitive examination to fill the vacancy in the position of postmaster at the Jeffersonville Postoffice, a position which has base pay of $2400 per year.

At the present time Dean Powell is the acting postmaster at Jeffersonville, having succeeded George Blessing last July.

In order to be eligible for the examination, an applicant must be a citizen of, or owe allegiance to, the United States; must have actually resided within the delivery of the post office for which the examination is held, or within the city or town where such office is situated, for at least 1 year immediately preceding the date fixed for the close of receipt of applications; must be in good physical condition; and must be within the prescribed age limits.

The competition is open to both men and women.

The Civil Service Commission will certify the names of the highest three qualified eligibles to the Postmaster General who shall thereupon submit the name of the eligible selected to the President for nomination. Confirmation by the Senate is the final action.

Applicants will be required to assemble in an examination room for written tests, and will also be rated on their education and business or professional experience, general qualifications and suitability. The Civil Service Commission will make an impartial inquiry among representative patrons of the office, both men and women, concerning the experience, ability, and character of each applicant, and the evidence thus secured will be considered in determining the ratings to be assigned to the applicants. The Commission is not interested in the political, religious, or fraternal affiliations of any applicant.

Full information and application forms may be obtained at the post office for which the examination is held, or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Applications must be on file in the office of the Commission at Washington 25, D. C. not later than the date specified at the head of the examination announcement.

The examination will be held in Washington C. H., the date to be announced later.

ways annexed the best chateaus. As a scout, Mrs. Collins picked command posts where good food, good wine and fine sleeping facilities were available.

Mrs. Collins began attending staff conferences and her advice on military matters seemed as sound as it did on the proper temperature to serve wine. She read all the intelligence reports.

Mrs. Collins was on her way to becoming France's second Joan of Arc. An order went out that all prisoners were to be interrogated by her. She began speeding about on special missions in the colonel's jeep. But the jeep proved her undoing.

She was bouncing along, riding alone in the back seat as the regiment was moving up. The jeep passed the commanding general of the division. He stared flabbergasted at a civilian woman in an army jeep so close to the front lines.

"Who is that woman?" he shouted.

"Why don't you know her, General," replied a private. "That's Mrs. Collins."

The general checked and found that nobody knew who Mrs. Collins was, where she had come from or what was her background.

"Turn her over to the CIC," the general stormed.

The counter intelligence agents took Mrs. Collins into custody and no one knows what happened to her.

Her military career was over.

2 War Veteran Students Have No Problems Here

James Liso and Don Kellough are carrying schoolbooks now instead of the weapons which were more familiar to them a few months ago.

They are respectively a sophomore and junior at Washington C. H. High School.

Both boys are taking an academic course to prepare them for college later on. They are fitting themselves in their old grooves at the high school—a little slowly at first, perhaps, but they're getting there.

The "adjustment" problem we've all read about so much? Stephen C. Brown, the high school principal, said he didn't believe there is any for the boys. And, he has kept in close contact with both of them since they assumed the role of students once more.

There is a vast difference between a South Pacific battle-ground or a merchant ship and a classroom, but the boys are bridging that gap without any trouble, their principal said.

James, 17, is a sophomore with over a year of merchant marine duty behind him. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Liso of Sycamore Street and was in the invasions of Sicily, Italy and Normandy. Right now, he is practicing some different combat tactics with the Blue Lions football squad.

Don is 20 and served in the marine corps for nearly two years. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kellough, he was wounded seriously in the Marshall Islands campaign last February. Because he has reached his 20th birthday, he is ineligible for high school football.

pension bill first (the specific CIO Kilgore Bill), then the full employment bill, minimum wage increase to 65 cents an hour, the fair employment practices bill and the Ball, Burton, Hatch bill to which CIO is opposed because it would require unions to assume more responsibility in a mild way.

Ordinarily no threats are made against the congressmen. All concerned are too subtle for that. But everyone involved knows what the game is. During the Maryland meeting, one CIO speaker did say something about taking care of those congressmen at the next election who did not vote the CIO way, and Senator Tydings walked out, creating a stir by proclaiming he was elected by the people or his state and was answerable to them, not to this one class.

Afterward the CIO state delegations call on Senate and House leaders to impress them, then get into hired special busses and ride down to the White House for a talk with the same Truman secretary, Matthew Connolly, who seems to be in charge of receiving them. I have heard estimates that the New York delegation trip must have cost $30,000 or $40,000 for rounding up leaders from all parts of the state and paying their way and lodgings from home-portal to portal, but some authorities think this a little high. Whatever it was, the amount and method comprise formidable warning of the millions back in CIO offers for organizing "political action" even down in those southern districts where CIO has no members (remember what nearly happened to Speaker Rayburn, as all congressmen do.)

Now when you couple these bills with an insistent national strike demand for a 30 per cent wage increase, "you will realize that the whole future economic structure of the nation is at stake in a political battle which is rising in intensity—with next years congressional elections always the controlling psychological influence in the background, not only in Congress but at the White House.

Mr. Truman's new personal pressure has not made it any easier for congressmen to maintain the position they always took against Mr. Roosevelt in these matters, and it is therefore uncertain how long they can resist a dual challenge more powerful than any a Congress has faced.

PENSION OFFICE HERE UNTOUCHED BY STATE SPUR

Speed-up in Checking and Payment Ordered by Chief Already in Effect

The order of Ira Lamoreaux, acting chief of the state Division of Aid for the Aged, to county offices to start checking all applications for pensions within ten days of receipt probably will have little effect on the office here.

It was explained that pending applications for aid were kept at a minimum here. Lamoreaux's order was made to take the long wait out of old age pensions, it was explained.

An Associated Press report said the action came after the resignation of two county administrators within recent weeks and the dismissal Thursday of Mrs. Nina L. Harris of Athens, a field representative, on grounds of inefficiency and insubordination. It also pointed up a drive ordered by Welfare Director Frazier Reams to "streamline operations and avoid costly errors which cause undue hardship."

The action was interpreted here as applying particularly to offices where applications for old age pensions piled up for days without investigations being made or action being taken on them. No such delays are customary in the office here, it was explained.

When you were three

Tying your own shoes was a tough job. But your parents knew it would help you to help yourself.

That's always been an American custom. As boy or man, just give an American an even break—a chance to get ahead—he'll do the rest.

But when government goes into business, in competition with its citizens, the American idea of an even break is destroyed... for government in business takes special privileges that are denied the people.

Consider government power projects, for example. They are not required to pay federal taxes; often get money from the U. S. Treasury at little or no interest; make up losses out of the pockets of the taxpayers.

On the other hand, America's business-managed power companies—owned and operated by millions of folk like you—are on their own.

They pay their full share of taxes, and they pay fair interest on loans. It is a tribute to American self-reliance that business-managed companies supply over 80% of the electric power used in this country.

These companies provide enough electricity to meet gigantic demands—and, when most things cost more—still deliver electricity at low prices.

Dr. Lucy Franklin Presents 2 Books To Library Here

The Fayette County League of Women Voters through its president, Mrs. Jean S. Nisley, and other members, is extending the thanks of the League to Mrs. Lucy Jenkins Franklin of Boston, Mass., for the gift of two modern books—"Carrie Chapman Catt, a Biography" and "Lucy Stone, Pioneer of Women's Rights," to be added to the collection of books in the Carnegie Library known as the "Nina Maynard Craig Memorial." Mrs. Craig was the founder of the Fayette County League of Women Voters, and was for twenty years its president.

Each of these books is as fascinating as a novel. Mrs. Catt is internationally known as the great leader of the woman suffrage movement who visited every continent and brought women of all races into a common front in the International Suffrage Alliance. She built up an organization of two million women.

Lucy Stone is known as "the morning star of the woman's rights movement." Before Mrs. Catt was born, for ten years—1847 to 1857—Lucy Stone lectured to immense audiences up and down the country. The overmastering purpose of her life took possession of her in childhood when she saw how her mother and other women were treated by their husbands and by laws. At that time a husband had the legal right to beat his wife "with a reasonable instrument," which a certain judge interpreted as "a stick no thicker than my thumb." Lucy Stone's writings show that early American life was as different from the life of today as that of some remote foreign country.

POINT REWARD FOR USED FATS DOUBLED

4 points instead of 2 for every pound!

EVERY one of you housewives in America, in your own kitchen, can speed the return of larger supplies of soaps and all the peacetime things you have been waiting for so long. You can do it by saving more used fats...every drop you can scrape or skim. It's as urgently needed as ever. So keep doing it, won't you?

You women of America have done a magnificent job of saving used fats during the war, but victory has not ended the need. The fat supply for the manufacture of soap and other long-wanted products is millions of pounds less in 1945 than it was in 1944. That is why the government offers four ration points instead of two for every pound of used fats you turn in.

By skimming, scooping and scraping every last drop of used fat, you can help increase your own home supplies of soaps, soap flakes and powders more quickly. And not only soaps. But the nylons, cottons, electric washers, irons, refrigerators, automobiles and hundreds of other peacetime products we've all been waiting for.

The fats saved in your kitchen are urgently needed to help get peacetime goods back into production...and back to you...more quickly. So won't you keep up the good work even though the war is over? You'll help to fill your own needs for soaps and the civilian goods you're dreaming of. Remember, every drop of used fat is still vitally important. Keep saving, won't you?

World Series Opens Wednesday With Cubs Playing in Detroit

By the Associated Press
It was a happy group of Detroit Tigers that rattled across the countryside last night bound for home and the opening game of the World Series against the Chicago Cubs on Wednesday at Briggs Stadium, Detroit.

The way they won their clincher at St. Louis Sunday, by knocking the Browns aside 6 to 3 on Hank Greenberg's mighty ninth inning homer with the bases loaded, filled Manager Steve O'Neill's warriors with a fierce joy.

O'Neill, winning his first flag after 14 years of managing ball clubs in the minor and major leagues, left no doubt last night that Lefty Hal Newhouse, his 25-game winner, would start against the Cubs in the Series opener.

"It won't be anybody else," he chortled around his ever-present cigar. "If you got a pitcher like that boy, you use him."

The fact they captured the flag with the lowest win and lost percentage in history did not dampen the Tigers' faith in their ability. After Hank hit that one out of sight they were firmly convinced they were a great ball club.

Although Virgil Trucks weakened somewhat in the sixth inning and had to be relieved by Newhouse, he looked as if he might be very useful in the World Series.

The Tigers will rest today and will hold their pre-series workout at 11 A. M. tomorrow at their home field. O'Neill said the Cubs would be given the park at 1 P. M. for their workout.

Lucrative World Series
Hank Greenberg's $300,000 home run has set the stage for a gold-plated World Series.

Presence of the Bengals and Bruins, two of the game's top attractions in two of the nation's best baseball towns, assures a player pool of near-record portions.

The players could split approximately $500,000 on a 60-40 basis which would mean a generous slice of three hundred grand to the victors. A Washington pennant would have made a deep gouge in the player melon because of the limited seating capacity of Griffith Stadium.

Greenberg's lusty clout into the left field stands at Sportsman's Park in the ninth inning of yesterday's pennant ball game climaxed several weeks of anxious waiting by Tiger patrons who had seen their favorites accused of "backing in" to the flag.

Detroit hadn't been too sure about sweeping the final pair from the St. Louis Browns and had made tentative arrangements to hold out Hal Newhouse for a playoff game that never will be played.

Washington, which finished its season a week ago, had been hoping for a miracle double victory by the defending champion Browns.

George Starnweiss of the Yanks surprisingly won the American batting title yesterday with three hits in New York's 12-2 romp over Boston, advancing to 309, one point ahead of Chicago's Tony Cuccinello who was rained out of a final doubleheader with Cleveland. The Yanks finished fourth, lowest since 1925, and worst in the Joe McCarthy regime.

Chief interest in the National League's final day was the hitting duel between Phil Cavaretta of Chicago and Tommy Holmes of Boston, won by the Cubs' first sacker, 355 to 352. Two safe blows in a "mean nothing" 5-3 decision over Pittsburgh saved the day for Cavaretta.

Holmes collected four hits although his club was shut out, 1-0, by rookie Don Fisher of the Giants in a 13-inning first game. But the Braves' left fielder was horsecollared in the second contest, a 2-2 tie called at the end of seven games because of darkness.

Nap Reyes' homer copped the opener.

Harry Breechen added another victory to make his leading season record 15-4 by hurling St. Louis to a 3-2 edge over Cincinnati, a contest won in the 12th by Del Rice's first big league homer.

Ed Stanky set a new league record by drawing his 148th base on balls as Hal Gregg hung up his 18th decision, a 4-1 Brooklyn triumph over the Phillies.

The Dodgers took third money in the league, behind the abdicating champion Cardinals and Pittsburgh rallied to take fourth. Mel Ott's Giants lacked the pitching to make a run of it and settled for fifth followed by the Braves, Reds and Phillies who finished 52 games to the rear of the Cubs.

NEW STRIKES THREATEN AS SOME OLD ONES ENDED; OHIO GASOLINE IS SCARCE

ark, N. J., area.

In New York the building service men struck in protest against a regional WLB directive which increased hourly rates but reduced the hours per week, resulting, the union contended, in a pay cut. The strike ended when the union bowed to an ultimatum from Gov. Thomas E. Dewey that it accept arbitration. Dewey named George Frankenthaler, former New York state supreme court justice, as arbitrator. He scheduled a meeting with interested groups for today.

Colorado Trouble Eases
The Colorado Fuel and Iron strike in Pueblo ended when members of the CIO United Steel Workers Union voted to return pending a WLB hearing. Michael J. Soldren, international union representative, described the stoppage as a "vacation" stemming from a union complaint to the WLB that the company had failed to comply with a directive forbidding supervisors to do the work of subordinates.

The National Federation of Telephone Workers called an executive board meeting for today to discuss a tentative National Labor Relations Board order.

The order recommended establishment of a federation affiliate, the Western Electric Employees Association, in New York and New Jersey, charging it to be company-dominated. NFW President Joseph Beirne thought a "demonstration" work stoppage was a "definite possibility."

Situation in Ohio
A walkout in Dayton affecting 13,000 workers this morning marred Ohio's labor picture as two state work stoppages ended and idle unionists took steps to open a third strikebound plant.

Employees of the General Motors Corp.'s five Frigidaire plants left their jobs at 6 A. M. today in protest against the "unjustified indefinite suspension of four workers."

A company spokesman reported that picketing had halted the production at the plants.

Ralph E. Moses, president of Local 801, United Electric Workers (CIO) said the company suspended three of the men for allegedly participating in a work stoppage and "laid off" the fourth for his union activities. Company officials declined comment on the union's charges and said they had not been notified of the strike vote, which Moses said was taken yesterday.

Employees of the Spicer Manufacturing Corp. at Toledo, where 3,400 CIO-United Auto Workers are idle, last night voted to ask the company to reopen plants and resume negotiations. Operations were suspended last week by the company which assuaged workers of a "slow down" during negotiations on a wage dispute.

Gasoline Still Scarce
The tieup of gasoline supplies in northern Ohio by a widespread strike of CIO-United Oil Workers became further complicated.

Toledo City Manager George N. Schoonmaker said the city-labor-industry committee controlling gasoline rationing was "prepared to seize all supplies of gasoline if necessary." His statement came after the Lucas County Gasoline Dealers' Association threatened to picket all stations, including the 12 emergency outlets set up by the committee, if operations of the committee were not ended.

The rationing system has been protested by both consumers and retailers.

Andrew J. Ripich, secretary of the Cleveland Association of Petroleum Dealers, representing 1,400 dealers, announced a meeting of the association Wednesday to consider a demand for increased profits from major oil companies.

Ripich told a company-union conference Saturday that the dealers were prepared to close their stations if the oil workers' strike were not settled immediately. The unionists are asking a 30 percent wage increase.

There were no developments in continuing strikes at Cincinnati, Warren and Toronto.

Approximately 1,600 coal miners stopped work at three Belmont County (Ohio) mines today in sympathy with the week-old strike of 36,000 Pennsylvania and West Virginia mine foremen, a Rail and River Coal Co. official reported.

The walk-out, which follows the second federal last night of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, and the negotiating committee of the National Bituminous Coal Operators to arrange a conference, is expected to spread through eastern Ohio, operators said.

About 30 mines employing 16,000 in Belmont, Jefferson, Harrison and Guernsey counties, may be affected within a day or two, company officials said.

Truman Program Lags
Congress this week goes into its second month of discussion with only one of President Truman's legislative proposals written into law.

Without controversy, the President won approval of his recommendation the Surplus Property Board of three members be tele-scoped into a single administrator.

Today only the House is in session. It first gets a formal report on the Elliott Roosevelt-John Hartford "bad debt" case, then turns to debating what to do about this country's Merchant Marine.

GRAIN MARKET NEWS SUMMARY

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Grain futures continued their strong forward movement today, advancing more than a cent a bushel in many cases to new seasonal peaks for wheat, rye and September, 1946, oats.

Persistent commission house buying, some of it apparently for mills, and strength in securities were outstanding factors in the advance. A 7c bushel advance in the government subsidy to mills for October was believed to have brought new mill business into the wheat pit.

Wheat closed 1½c to 1½c higher than the previous finish. Dec. $1.74½-¼. Corn was up ½c to ½c, Dec. $1.17½. Oats were ½c to 1½c higher. Dec. 66½-¼. Rye was up ½c to 1½c, Dec. $1.53½-¼. Barley gained 1½c to 2c, December $1.12½.

C OF C MEMBERSHIP CONTACTS TO BE RESUMED

MEETING CALLED FOR WEDNESDAY TO MAKE PLANS

Public Support, Financial And Moral, Is Sought To Carry Out Program

Now that the "master plan" for development of Washington C. H. has been laid before the public by the Chamber of Commerce through a meeting of its directors, city officials, county commissioners and the county's planning board, the Chamber's membership committee is getting ready to swing into action again.

Ray Brandenburg, the C of C president, pointed out that one of the keystones of the organization's policy was to get a definite program first so the membership committee would have something to show prospective members. He made it plain, however, that the "master plan" was only one part—although the most spectacular—of the Chamber's overall plan for the future.

H. H. Denton, chairman of the membership committee, has called his committee into a meeting to be held at the Chamber's office Wednesday at 7:45 P.M. Plans for first contacts with all those prospective members not yet given a direct opportunity to come into the C of C are to be made. He declared that the keynote of the forthcoming clean-up would be to give everyone an opportunity to take out a membership.

Brandenburg declared he hoped that those the committee might inadvertently miss would take the initiative themselves and get in touch with the committee. The C of C office phone number is 8731. A call will bring a committeeman to explain the program, the president said.

A list of all prospective members was made up several weeks ago. It is from this list that Denton's committee will make its contacts.

Foundations for the extensive and ambitious development program are now being laid. Brandenburg pointed out that inasmuch as its benefits are all-inclusive throughout both Washington C. H. and Fayette County support of the people, moral and financial, is necessary to carry it out.

Overseas for 11 months, Capt. Armbrust is with a medical battalion in Europe. His wife and small son live at 223 East Street.

The citation accompanying Capt. Armbrust's bronze star is: "Capt. Lawrence W. DAMAGE SETTLEMENT

In the matter of Jane Mark, injured in the same accident as Miss Nisley, court approves similar settlement from same parties.

FALLING TREE DAMAGES AUTO

Other Dangerous Trees on Streets of City

During a light northerly wind near the noon hour Saturday, a maple tree some 20 inches in diameter, on Market Street in front of the W. M. Campbell property at Fayette Street intersection, broke off at the ground, and fell into Market Street, crushing the top of an automobile owned by William Cook, employed at the Drummond Implement Store.

Fortunately there was no one in the car at the time the tree fell upon it, but a passing car narrowly escaped being struck in the street, according to those near the scene at the time. The tree stood on the grassplot between the sidewalk and curb, and had been nearly eaten away by termites which had worked in the decayed wood. Only a thin layer of live wood had been holding the tree upright.

Belief is expressed by observers that there are other trees on grassplots or overhanging various streets that are in a dangerous condition.

Earlier this year a tree on North North Street broke off and fell into the street, narrowly missing a passing car.

SEPTEMBER WAS UNUSUALLY HOT AND WET MONTH

Average Temperature Was 4.5 Degrees Above Normal, Summary Shows

September proved to be one of the hottest months on record, with an average mean temperature of 4.5 degrees above normal, the September average being 70.6 degrees compared with a normal of 66.1 degrees.

It was also a month with abnormal rainfall, the total precipitation being 3.42 inches while normal is 2.43, making the September precipitation .99 of an inch above normal.

The rainfall occurred on 16 days, which is decidedly unusual for September, and as a result kept fall pastures at their best, and insured full maturity of various crops, including corn and soybeans, although it greatly retarded the work of harvesting both these crops.

September had 11 days with a temperature of 90 or above, and two of these days, the 7th and 23rd registered 97 degrees, or nearly as high as the peak earlier in the season.

Summary for the month, made by U. S. Observer Chalmers Burns, who has the government instruments located on his premises on Leesburg Avenue at the corner of Greene Street, shows that the lowest temperature recorded on the 12th when a reading of 46 was recorded.

Winds generally were from the northwest and west, and thunder-showers were numerous.

The mean temperature was 82.4 and mean minimum 57.8.

Lowest temperature here Saturday night was 48 degrees, and the maximum Sunday was 66 degrees.

Monday at 8 A. M. the reading was 69 degrees.

'AN EQUAL JOB' OPPORTUNITY

Physically Handicapped To Have a Chance

City Manager Walter L. Stambaugh joined Manager Ward C. Miller of the U. S. Employment Service Monday in an announcement of plans for the observance here of "National Employ The Physically Handicapped Week," October 7 to 13, 1945.

The statement, issued by the city manager's office, calls upon Washington C. H. employers to give physically handicapped workers "an equal opportunity." "During the week, thousands of handicapped workers performed jobs vital to victory and many other men and women became disabled in the service of their country in the fighting forces. All of these Americans deserve not only our appreciation but an equal job opportunity. It is hoped that all Washington C. H. employers will cooperate fully with the U. S. Employment Service in its efforts to find satisfactory jobs for the disabled workers of this city," Stambaugh and Miller state.

AUTHORITY ON HEALTH SERVICE COMES TUESDAY

Dr. C. A. Wilzbach, Cincinnati Health Commissioner on Rotary Program

Dr. Roger E. Heering, state director of health for Ohio, who was to have appeared as the speaker at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Washington Rotary Club, phoned the program committee here Sunday that he has been obliged to go to Michigan Monday and Tuesday because of a death in the family and cannot appear here. He stated that he hoped to be booked for another meeting later.

Dr. Heering, however, arranged for one of the outstanding health authorities and speakers in Ohio to take his place on this program. He advised that Dr. Carl A. TIME CHANGE MADE SUNDAY

All Business, Railroads, etc., Now on Same Time

This community and Ohio generally shook off "war time" Sunday at 2 A. M. and all businesses, including railroads, bus lines, etc., are now observing Eastern Standard, or "slow" time.

The change in this city was made with hardly a ripple, because the official time of the city has been Eastern Standard time since last spring.

The few business firms that were operating on fast time also changed to Eastern Standard time.

Railroads put the change into effect at 2 A. M. without disturbing the regular schedules, but will observe the same time as the remainder of the state.

The change became operative throughout the nation with exception of some places where daylight saving time is in effect.

AUTO CLUB DOORS LOCKED HERE MONDAY MORNING

So many people were at the automobile club Monday morning to buy drivers' licenses that the doors had to be locked so the crowd could be taken care of. No accurate check on the number of licenses issued here to date can be made until the rush is over, it was explained. However, more licenses were sold than the 5,200 figure of last year, it was estimated.

DRIVERS' LICENSE EXAMS TO BE ON FRIDAYS NOW

Examinations for drivers' licenses will be given here on Friday from now on. Previously, the state highway patrol examiner has been here on Thursdays.

Each Thursday the examiner will be at the state highway department on West Elm Street here from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. to conduct the examinations.
